GAHU participates in the National Convention

The Georgian Association of Health Underwriters (GAHU) sent several local members to the annual national convention for the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU) June 29-July 1, 2014. This national convention was held in June 29-July 2, 2014 at the Westin Kierland Resort & Spa in Scottsdale, AZ.

This national convention attracts members and guests from across the country to participate in educational programming, exhibit hall, tailored workshop sessions and the honored Gordon Memorial Award Dinner. These 3 days of learning and networking amount industry peers will feature several guest speakers.

Keynote Speaker on Sunday is motivational speaker Dan Clark who in 2005, was one of five newly elected inductees into the National Speakers Association Speakers Hall of Fame, and received the prestigious CPAE – “Council of Peers Award for Excellence” lifetime achievement award. In addition, speaker Haley Barbour Founding Partner of BGR Group, served two consecutive terms as Governor of Mississippi, including two years as the Chairman of the Republican Governors Association (RGA) addressed the attendees.

Education focused on health care reform, certifications, insurance exchanges and the value of human capital.

GAHU is the state chapter of the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU). NAHU is a voluntary association comprised of approximately 100,000 health insurance professionals including agents, brokers, carrier representatives and administrators. GAHU’s members belong to 8 local chapters in our state.
