

Legislative Report – Week 7

This Monday, February 29th, was not only leap day but also crossover day at the Georgia General Assembly. This is the last day a bill can pass one chamber and still be eligible for consideration by the other chamber. This was a busy day and a late night for Legislators.

Tuesday was Super Tuesday and legislators took the day off. This was to recover from a long crossover day and to allow legislators the chance to vote at home. They returned on Wednesday for Day 31 and a number of committee meetings. The legislature will reconvene on Monday, March 7th for Day 32.

Priority Legislation

HB 838 – (Representative Shaw Blackmon) A substitute provided that a 5% commission on regular enrollment small-group plans and they added to the bill a minimum of 4% on individual health benefit plans. The bill with the addition passed the committee unanimously. The bill passed the House and is now in the Senate Insurance and Labor Committee. Chairman Meadows has indicated this bill continues to be a top priority for him this year. He believes it is one of the best small business bills moving this year. We will continue to keep you posted as the bill moves through the Senate.

HB 866 – (Representative Shaw Blackmon) This bill exempts multiple employer self-insured health plans from premium taxes. The bill passed the House and is now in the Senate Insurance and Labor Committee.

HB 965 – (Representative Mike Cheokas) Titled the “Jimmy Carter Cancer Treatment Access Act,” this bill requires the appropriate level insurance coverage for patients with advanced metastatic, Stage Four cancer. It prohibits exclusion of a drug if approved by the FDA and the patient is not required to first fail another drug in a step therapy in order to access such drug. This bill passed the House and is now in the Senate Insurance and Labor Committee.

SB 158 – (Senator Dean Burke) This bill regulates rental networks in Georgia by requiring them to register with the DOI. The bill passed the Senate and is now in the House Health Committee.

SB 302 – (Senator PK Martin) Requires carriers to maintain accurate provider directories. This bill has passed the Senate and is now in the House Insurance Committee.

SB 382 – (Senator Unterman) The “Surprise Billing and Consumer Protection Act.” The bill provides disclosure requirements of providers, hospitals and insurers. It also provides for billing and reimbursement of out-of-network services. It lays out procedures for dispute resolution for surprise bills and nonemergency services. This bill failed to pass the Senate this year and is no longer eligible for consideration in 2016. This is certainly the beginning of a conversation and not the last we will see of this type legislation.

Senator Unterman has indicated that she is focusing her efforts on a study committee (SR 974 - <http://www.legis.ga.gov/Legislation/en-US/display/20152016/SR/974>)
